

Edgecumbe Orchard Observations—17 November 2014

Above: These Hayward vines did not receive a spring protective spray programme and show significant leaf-spotting and loss of female flower buds.

Above: These Hayward vines were directly adjacent to the vines above and received a comprehensive spray programme. They are showing minimal Psa-V symptoms and carry good crop loads.